CORBETT LAKE FISHOUT

April 27/28/29

For those who are thinking of attending please book asap as accommodation is running out. Anne advised that she will cook a dinner for Friday night and will have the bar open for some telling of tall tales. The Saturday meal plan of breakfast, bagged lunch and dinner is $55.00 including tax and gratuities. Sunday morning breakfast is also available. Please book your accommodation and meals directly with Anne at Corbett Lake (250) 378-4334.

We are hoping to get Ken Woodward of Kelowna to speak at our Fishout. He is willing to share his recent experience with fishing the Skagit and Silver Hope R. with former World Fly Fishing Champion Dave Arcay of Spain. For those who don't know Ken, he is a teacher in Kelowna (ex fish biologist) and a very experienced fly fisher and fly tier in the interior. Ken is a very knowledgeable in the field of entomology, especially for interior lakes and is very willing to share this knowledge with others. Ken has given several presentations to the PFF on topics such as Chironomids, Damselflies and Scuds etc. Ken's presentations have been first rate with great photo's, charts and information.

For those who have never fished Corbett Lake, note that they also rent boats. For more info see their website at: www.corbettlake.ca
